

6516205360.txt

Dear Sir, XM radio is offering a very important service by broadcasting weather and traffic reports. I am a truckdriver and knowing this information can help me plan my trips better. If I know of a bad accident ahead of time it will allow me to find an alternate route. If there is a serious snow storm I can avoid it by taking a different route. XM radio offers me static free information that I need to run my business.

Sincerely,
Robert Higgins